2 Annual report of the 2017 UCSA President

Josh Proctor, UCSA President highlighted key points from the 2017 annual President's report.

UCSA 2017 President's Annual Report

1. Introduction

Kia ora whanau and friends of the UCSA,

2017 was the year of the rooster, which means a year of optimism, confidence, and practicality. At the UCSA, the year will especially be remembered as one of progress. In addition to providing great entertainment, advocacy and support to our students, we successfully settled our contents and chattels insurance claim from the old UCSA Building; enhanced the UCSA representative voice; re-opened the Engineering Café; started construction on the new UCSA Building; achieved the highest ever voter turn-out in the UCSA Executive elections; and raised well over $1 million towards the new UCSA Building project. As the ol' saying goes, the rooster may crow but the hen delivers the goods. In 2019 construction on the new UCSA Building is expected to be completed, and the hard work from many over the years will finally come to fruition.

The University and its Association is in extraordinary times facing incredible opportunities and I thank all those who have helped and continue to help shape the UCSA. As my last official duty as 2017 President, I want to acknowledge the UCSA Executive and staff who had to put up with me. Thanks for the good times team, it was a blast.

2. Representation & Governance

Executive

The Executive comprises of twelve UC students who are annually elected by their fellow students. The Executive is the governing body of the UCSA, and represents the student community on a wide range of boards and committees across the University. They are the voice of students at UC, as well as at local and national level. The UCSA President is also a member of UC Council, the governing body of the University.

In 2016 we received a record voter turnout in the UCSA Executive elections. In 2017, we set the objective to increase our mandate even further. A mammoth effort from the entire UCSA team and a highly competitive election led to a voter turnout of 45% (or 5,616 students).

In 2017, six (6) general executive members held external portfolios and undertook a range of projects that were of interest to them and were beneficial to the student body. The newly formed roles of student wellbeing officer, postgraduate representative and Te Akatoki representative focused on their respective positions while also undertaking projects. The external portfolios and projects undertaken by the Executive were as follows:

James Addington	President
Emily Barker	Vice President	External Portfolios
Josh Proctor	Finance Officer	Projects

Name	External Portfolio	Projects
Harry Beaumont	Business & Law	Bike locks, skate workshops
Jackson White	Engineering	Solar panels, UCSA sustainability report, skate workshops
Sam Brosnahan	Equity & Wellbeing	Mental Health Awareness Week, fruit drops, flat packs, communications review, Thursdays in Black
Hana Skerrett-White	Te Akatoki	Events and advocacy
Laura Robinson	Education	Self defense classes, heat & eat
Ron Park	Arts	International food market
Riley Bros	Science	Clubs & Events, club pop-up
Chanuka De Silva	Commerce	Student chargers, communications
Thomas Gillman	Post Graduate	Postgraduate Advisory Group, Postgraduate policies

The Executive meet formally at least three times per term, as well as holding workshops where required on specific issues that need attention. External portfolios have regular meetings dependent on the University calendar (some once a month, some twice, others more regularly). Project meetings are held regularly with the particular Exec or staff of the UCSA.

The UCSA Executive represent students on over thirty (30) committees, faculty and representative meetings at the University level, including:

- The above external portfolios
- All Discipline and Academic Progress Committees
- Central Equity and Diversity Advisory Committee
- JOAB – Joint Operations Advisory Board
- Academic Board
 - Learning and Teaching Committee
- University Council
- University Council subcommittees - Finance, Planning and Resources Committee and Audit and Risk Committee
- Academic Board and Council Appeals

Chief Executive

Dave Hawkey joined the UCSA as the Chief Executive in 2012 and continues to drive the strategic and operational side of the organisation as well as working with UC to deliver the new UCSA Building.

Advisory Board

The UCSA Executive appoints the Advisory Board and, as the name suggests, it is a board that advises. They provide advice to the UCSA Executive and Chief Executive, and make recommendations as to the Associations activities, particularly those of a commercial nature. The Board is comprised of up to six (6) external professionals, as well as the President, Vice President and Finance Officer. The Board meets once a month. The President chairs the meetings and the Chief Executive sits in attendance. To provide the Executive with more exposure to the Advisory Board, we held two combined Executive and Advisory Board meetings. These were successful in helping the Executive to better understand the recommendations from the Advisory Board and allows the entire governing body to discuss larger issues e.g. matters relating to the UCSA Building.

As of 31 December 2017, the Advisory Board (external) members are:

Name	Year Appointed
Nigel Watson	2006
Joanne Milne	2010
Jeremy Blake	2012
Paul Munro	2013
Lucy Powell	2015

Representation Model

Following changes to the UCSA constitution, the Executive changed its representation model with the addition of specific Postgraduate and Equity & Wellbeing elected representatives. It has been a success with it leading to a heightened focus on those particular areas. In addition to changing representation on the UCSA Executive, progress was made on enhancing the UCSA Class Rep model and implementing a Postgraduate Advisory Group.

4. Commercial Activity

Food & Beverage

Food & Beverage continues to provide cost effective food options for students. The new Eng Café opened in September 2017 and was an immediate success due to its diverse menu and location. At the beginning of 2017 we handed back to UC the lease of the café in the Law and Business Building due to a lack of sales. At the end of 2017 we closed The Shed café at Kirkwood due to the prefab buildings being dismantled in 2018. Mono nights continues to be a success for The Foundry with over between 1,000 - 1,500 students attending the Mono events during term time.

Food and Beverage produced a surplus of $470,323. This is a great result from a surplus in 2016 of $300,000. This is mostly driven by external catering, gigs and events.

Early Learning Centres

The UCSA owns and operates two Early Learning Centres (ELCs). These are Montana (on the corner of Montana Ave and Ilam Road.) and Ilam (Dovedale campus). Both are kept busy and continue to provide a great service for UC students, University staff and our community. Due to the demolition of the UCSA Building and long-term plans for campus, UCSA permanently moved the Ilam ELC to Dovedale campus. The new site in Dovedale has proven to be a success with it being a modern and larger facility with a safer drop off and pick up area. Further upgrades to the facilities in 2017 included a new playground for the Dovedale ELC and new heat pumps for the Montana ELC.

UBS

The University Book Shop is 50% owned by the UCSA. Our CEO sits on the UBS Board and the UCSA plays an active role in driving sales and ensuring it is a student orientated store. In 2017, UBS made a surplus of $40,608. As distribution channels change and new methods of teaching are introduced, the sale of text books continues to decline.

5. Financial update

The UCSA has reported a surplus of $3,081,119 for the 2017 financial year. This figure includes insurance claim income of $2,690,987 as well as demolition costs of $932,138. Revenue for the year was $12,262,424 while operating expenses were $11,442,375. Underlying operating surplus was $820,049 including depreciation of $377,440.

The two childcare centres had a quieter year than 2016 but this was offset by an excellent performance in food and beverage.

6. UCSA Building

The UCSA building was badly damaged in the 2011 earthquakes. After initially working out of marquees and prefab buildings in the UCSA car park, our offices have since been located in the ground floor of Puaka-James Hight building. Over the last two years, significant progress was made towards getting back into our own home. Leighs Construction was awarded the contract and promptly began work in July. To mark this significant milestone, we hosted a turning of the sod event with Alumni and friends. At the event, we announced the new UCSA Building name – Haere-roa. This name, gifted by mana whenua, Ngāi Tūāhuriri, translates to the longest stream or the long wanderer. It recognises the UCSA as a space that hosts and welcomes people. For many UC students the UCSA will be an important part of their journey; it's a place where they will receive support, access resources, learn new things and meet new people, preparing them for the next part of their journey.

In October, after years of negotiations we finally settled our contents and chattels insurance claim from the old UCSA building. The result was satisfactory and proceeds will help fit out the new building.

In November, the UCSA reached a formal arrangement with the University, ensuring security of tenure and funding for the new building. The signing of the agreements yet again demonstrates our strong relationship and partnership with the University.

Like the old Students' Association Building, our goal is to maintain majority ownership and operation of the new UCSA Building to ensure that we have a permanent base for all our activities. From our insurance, investments and reserves, we are still approximately $5 million short from our 51% ownership goal. As of 31 December, $1.4 million has been donated or pledged by individuals and organisations.

Key elements of the new UCSA Building:

- UCSA will own 51% and UC 49% of the Building.
- The project is governed by the Project Control Group (PCG), which is made up UC and UCSA members.
- The project is internally managed by UC Learning Resources and externally by RCP.
- UC are funding the project until 2019, allowing us time to raise the necessary amount for our 51% ownership.
- UC Foundation lead the UCSA fundraising campaign.

3 2017 Annual Accounts

Sam Brosnahan, Finance Officer informed the student body that the UCSA is financially in healthy shape, with the UCSA reporting a surplus of $3,081,119 for the 2017 financial year. This figure captures non-operating insurance claim income of (roughly $2.7m) $2,690,987 as well as demolition costs of $932,138. For the 2017 financial year, revenue is recorded at $12,262,424, while operating expenses were recorded at $11,442,375 which made for an operating surplus of $820,049.

The UCSA holds a strong balance sheet, with $20.6 million of assets and $5.5 million of liabilities. Within these assets, the UCSA currently hold cash reserves of $4.9 million, compared to $1.5 million the previous financial year. However much of this increase is attributed to insurance settlement incomings, which will need to be paid out to cover construction and fitout costs of our new building when it opens 2019.

Mike Rondel, BDO auditor confirmed that the UCSA audit went well and the UCSA has strong processes in place.

4 Haere-roa (UCSA Building) update

The UCSA remains a 51% shareholder of the building, while the University retains their share of 49%. This is reflected in UCSA's 51% and UC's 49% funding of the new building's construction costs. Fit-out for the new building will be funded by the UCSA.

UCSA remains committed to the fundraising campaign, commenced in 2016, to raise the $5m shortfall needed to fund Haere-roa's construction and fit-out costs. As it currently stands, through partnering with the UC Foundation, we have collectively raised $2.5 million of the total $5 million target.

The Finance Officer acknowledged the team at the UC Foundation for their continued support in helping UC students fundraise for their new building.

6 2018 President's update

The establishment of the Executive International portfolio this year is gaining traction with the International Representative working towards creating better presentation of international student concerns on campus.

In terms of the UCSA's services to students:

Advocacy and Welfare continues to gain positive numbers of students using the service.

The Events team are working on Music and Arts in May with a number of events on campus.

Ochella, one of many Orientation events was moved to Horncastle Arena due to the Cyclone Gita which resulted in a financial impact.

The annual ANZAC Day service was well supported this year with over 450 attendees.

The UCSA Media and Comms team are working on Instagram stories and CANTA has moved to using sustainable paper.

Food and Beverage have had a very busy first quarter and Eng Café in the new CORE Building is well supported by students.

The two Early Learning Centres (Ilam located at Dovedale campus and Montana on the corner of Montana and Ilam Roads) remain in high demand

Fundraising for Haere-roa is half way in terms of funds raised.

The President spoke to the UCSA submission at the Christchurch City Council on the Long Term Plan (LTP), which has resulted in a meeting being set up between the Christchurch City Councillors and the UCSA Executive in July to discuss student priorities in the city. This is a very positive step in the UCSA contributing the student voice and their needs across the Christchurch.

A member of the student body raised the point that when the Executive submit feedback on city wide matters (in light of the recent CCC Long Term Plan submission), that the UCSA should consult the whole student body first. The President acknowledged this feedback and will take it on board for any further submissions.

7 General Business

UCSA Building

The new UCSA Building project is progressing and the building is expected to be open in March 2019.

Dr Rod Carr consistently shows his appreciation of clubs and clubs culture on campus, supporting and attending UCSA and club led events like Grad Ball, ANZAC Day services, Blues and Supreme Clubs, LOTY, is always willing to take part in forums each term with the UCSA and discuss pressing and sometimes challenging issues with the student body (.e.g. post graduate printing issues, mental health, car parking etc), taking time out of his busy schedule, meets with the Chief Executive and President each monthly to discuss student issues and any other issues on campus, set up the structure of the Joint Operations Advisory Board (JOAB) where the UCSA and UC (co-chair) meetings held on a fortnightly basis to discuss student needs and concerns, where the UCSA has genuine input into the allocation of the student services levy, Rod and his wife Jenny host Executive members in their home twice a year with every Executive and have done over the 10 years of his tenure, supported for the re-build of the new UCSA building and continues to support and gives financial assistance of the UCSA fundraising campaign
